Press Release

Carpatair launches second direct flight, from Bucharest to Bari - Italy

One month after launching the first direct flight from Bucharest to Ancona on October 2, 2009, Carpatair begins today, October 27, 2009, operating direct flights from Bucharest to Bari.

For the period October 27 to November 30, flights will be operated with 2 frequencies per week, on Tuesdays and Sundays. Starting December the 3rd frequency will be added, on Thursdays. Newly introduced flights will have evening schedules and will complement already existing flight connections through Carpatair hub in Timisoara on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. The schedule of the direct flights Bucharest (OTP) - Bari valid from October 27, 2009:

Tuesday, Thursday * Sunday: Bucharest (OTP) 17:15 Bari (BRI) 18:05 (local times)
Tuesday, Thursday * Sunday: Bari (BRI) 18:50 Bucharest (OTP) 21:35 (local times)

* Thursday frequencies will operate starting December 2009

Tickets can be purchased on-line www.carpatair.com, through Carpatair Call Center, and through ticketing agencies in Romania and Italy.

Flights will be operated with Saab 2000 aircrafts with a capacity of 50 seats and will offer passengers a comprehensive service, both in business class and economy class at very attractive prices.

Carpatair, one of the largest regional airline in Eastern Europe with over 10 years of activity, operates over 250 domestic and international weekly flights from ten cities in Romania (Bucharest, Bacau, Constanta, Craiova, Cluj-Napoca, Iasi, Oradea, Sibiu, Suceava, Timisoara), three cities in Ukraine (Odessa, Lviv, Chernivtsi) and Chisinau in Moldova to ten destinations in Italy (Turin, Milan-Bergamo, Verona, Venice, Ancona, Bologna, Florence, Bari, Rome and Perugia), three in Germany (Munich, Stuttgart, Düsseldorf), and Athens in Greece. Carpatair has its own hub in Timisoara, where there is also the headquarters of the company.

Carpatair has a fleet of 13 Saab 2000 aircraft with a capacity of 50 seats and 3 Fokker 100 aircraft with 105 seats each.
